Email Notification Election Form

J.B.J. Properties would like to offer you the opportunity to sign-up for our E-mail Notification Program. If you would prefer to receive information from us via email rather than mail or phone, please indicate your email address and sign below. Information may include general property notices, lease renewals, notice of maintenance work to be performed in your unit, showing notices (upon giving of notice that you will be moving), and other miscellaneous items. Please be aware that based on the format of certain items we may not be able to email all documents or information in which case it will be delivered in the most appropriate manner. You may remove this election at any time upon written notification to our office. If your email address changes it is your responsibility to provide the new address.

If there are two individuals on the lease and both email addresses are provided we will email to both. Only one election can be made for the apartment unit (if you elect email notification you cannot also request notification by non-email methods used for residents not electing email notification)
